IA Global Capital is pleased to welcome Constantine Manos as Managing Director

Experienced M&A and growth equity advisor brings deep expertise across digital platform business models, fintech and payments to IA Global Capital

LONDON – October 26, 2026 – IA Global Capital ("IAGC"), a London and New York-based technology-focused investment bank, is pleased to announce that Constantine Manos has joined the firm as Managing Director.

Over the last two decades, Constantine has supported companies, founders and investors across Europe on M&A and growth equity transactions as well as providing strategic financial advice. His core industry focus areas are digital platforms, fintech and payments where he has advised leading companies in those sectors on opportunities to differentiate their business models and enhance strategic value.

Prior to joining IAGC, Constantine served as Managing Director with Macquarie Capital, a firm he joined in 2016. Earlier in his career, Constantine spent ten years with Credit Suisse, where he advised large enterprises, governments and financial sponsors on transactions in the UK and across Europe.

"We are delighted to welcome Constantine to IAGC," said Andres Pieczanski, Managing Partner of IA Global Capital. "He brings an impressive depth of experience, a strong track record of achievement and a perspective that will further enhance the quality of advice and service we provide to our clients. As a specialist investment banking firm, we place great importance on the caliber of our people, the strength of our relationships and our commitment to delivering exceptional outcomes. Constantine will make a significant contribution to the continued growth and success of the firm and I very much look forward to working together."

"I am thrilled to join IA Global Capital and to work alongside a very talented team with an exceptional track record in technology and services," said Constantine Manos. "IAGC has built a differentiated and focused platform for advising entrepreneurial and growth-oriented businesses. In this fast-evolving technology environment, I am committed to helping our clients attain their strategic goals with an emphasis on growth and value creation."
